

~More Party Details~

The event begins with the party planner. This will include choosing your sandwiches, cake flavor (chocolate or white), the correct spelling of your daughters name, and the RSVP message, along with any other additions of your choice to make your party unique, fun, and fabulous! The customized invitations will be mailed to you along with a self-addressed stamped envelope and seating chart the next day. Please return all potential guests' names in the envelope.

On the day of the party, all guests will arrive and walk upstairs on real rose petals. The guest of honor will be greeted by a framed scroll that welcomes her to The Enchanted Cottage. She then will be presented with a long stem pink rose. Once all guests arrive the guest of honor will be seated in the jeweled birthday chair. The guests will then be arranged around her where a group picture will be taken as a souvenir to take home that day.

Each of our four formal tables, which seat four to five guests, are decorated with fine china and favors to benefit any princess. Each young lady's name, in a silver frame, reserves her place setting.

Miss Becky will then begin the etiquette portion of the party with a short story about the history of tea parties. This portion will include the proper way to pour and stir tea and a few other age appropriate etiquette lessons. To help practice what they learn each table will find a two-tiered serving dish full of sandwiches (previously chosen), cookies and other goodies that will be served with The Enchanted Cottage signature tea.

Following the lunch portion of the party the guests will then accompany Miss Sandi to the "ooo-lah-lah" room where she will introduce and explain the activity. Afterwards, the girls will return to the main hall and be dazzled by the custom decorated cake that matches the party theme. Our guests will join in song and a formal toast to the birthday girl as she blows out her 2 long pink tapers.

After the Cake portion, the party will continue with presents! The guest of honor will again be seated in her jeweled chair and each guest will have the opportunity to sit beside her on stage and present the birthday girl with the gift she brought. (A great time for pictures!)

Finally, the party will conclude with Miss Sandi and Miss Becky presenting each guest with a certificate stating that they are now an official member of "The Enchanted Cottage Tea Party Society," a purse with themed treasures inside and a large pink bag displaying their names to carry home all their memories in.

Moms, relax, enjoy, and take many pictures. We will handle everything else.
